CIA World Factbook research and analysis

Project Title	CIA World Factbook research and analysis
Project Summary	Perform research and analysis for the highly regarded CIA World Factbook. Learn, contribute, enjoy, and see your work published for use by millions of people
Country	United States

Project Description

Perform research and analysis for CIA's The World Factbook.

The World Factbook is a publicly available unclassified website offering thousands of fields of information on 265 countries and other political and geographic entities. Categories of information presented on the website include; Communications, Economy, Energy, Geography, Government, Military, People and Society, Transnational Issues, Transportation, and Terrorism. The World Factbook is used freely by millions of people from all walks of life and earns high praise for the quality, depth, and accuracy of its information.

Because of The World Factbook's unique breadth of information, the product makes for an interesting research environment for students with a wide range of backgrounds.

The World Factbook is one of very few CIA products that is available to the public so you will see your ideas and contributions published on the World Wide Web.
?

Required Skills or Interests

Skill(s)

Analytical writing

Data visualization

Infographic design

Marketing

Research

Additional Information

You will be working with a team that includes college professors, retired military officers, researchers, storytellers, and designers. We welcome new ideas for new content and you will be able to see your work published on CIA's World Factbook website. Check it out and join us.

Language Requirements

None